

Festival of Endless Gratitude is looking for a volunteer coordinator (volunteer position)

WHAT

Festival of Endless Gratitude (FoEG) is an independent, international non-profit music and arts festival, which has been happening since 2009 in Copenhagen. The festival usually takes place in the fall and in the course of three days it presents around 20-25 musical acts and various installations by artists from all over the world. This year FoEG will take place November 2nd-4th. See more at foeg.dk.

We're looking for more people to join our group and help create the festival we love. Right now we need one more person to help coordinate the volunteers who help us during the festival days, at the bar, at the door and with other tasks. You'll work closely with our other volunteer coordinator.

The work will consist of recruiting volunteers via our network and social media, planning and communicating the volunteer schedule for the days of the festival, for example at the bar and the door as well as other logistical tasks. In this role you will get hands on experience with leading and coordinating our group of festival volunteers.

WHO

You are someone who likes to work with people, communication and you have a structured approach to planning. Maybe you have a background in working with events or at a bar, but this is not a must.

You think it's fun to work with people and planning while collaborating with a small team and you're also willing to give a hand with other tasks. The festival group consists of about 15 people and we all help each other when it is needed. We're all committed to making the best festival possible while having a lot of fun and we expect you to share that ambition.

It's not necessary that you know the festival or the artists that we present, but it's important that you want to be a part of a community of experimental art and music with a long history in Copenhagen.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Festival of Endless Gratitude is a non-profit festival, and everyone who's part of the arranging group is working voluntarily and are therefore unpaid, but you will get full access to the festival, including drinks and food.

We expect you to make a commitment but the number of working hours will depend on what you can contribute. It's important that you can be a part of all relevant physical and online meetings, which would roughly be once every one to two weeks and possibly more leading up to the festival. We need your help from now until the end of the festival.

Send us a few lines about yourself, any relevant information regarding the role and why you would like to be a part of the volunteer coordinator team for Festival of Endless Gratitude to pauline@festivalofendlessgratitude.dk and Volunteer@foeg.dk. We are very much looking forward to hearing from you.

Send us your application by Sunday the 13th of August.
